

CERDEIRA
HOME FOR CREATIVITY

How to get to Cerdeira

A Cerdeira is located in Central Portugal, less than an hour away from Coimbra.

Lisbon – Cerdeira Village: 217 km;
Porto – Cerdeira Village: 164 km;
Coimbra – Cerdeira Village: 37 km.

Travelling by car, from the south

Follow the A1 until Torres Novas and then take the A23 towards Castelo Branco. Follow the directions towards the A13 (Tomar and Coimbra) and stay on the A13 until you see an exit marked Miranda do Corvo/Lousã (N342). When you arrive in the center of Lousã, by the City Hall and the town's main church, follow the directions towards Cerdeira (N236). You will find the village in about 9km. When you arrive, park at the square by the chapel.

Travelling by car, from the north

Take the A1 until Condeixa and then take the A13 (Tomar and Lousã). Stay on the A13 until you see an exit marked Miranda do Corvo/Lousã (N342). When you arrive in the center of Lousã, by the City Hall and the town's main church, follow the directions towards Cerdeira (N236). You will find the village after about 9km. When you arrive, park in the square by the chapel.

By public transportation

Take the train or bus to Coimbra. In Coimbra, at the Coimbra-A train station, take the bus called "Metro Mondego" headed towards Lousã. In Lousã, take a taxi to the village, which is about 9 km away. The ride should cost you about 13€ and can be booked by calling +351 917 866 975.